International Development Law Organisation¹

¹ The International Development Law Organization (IDLO) is an international organization with seventeen member states, headquartered in Rome, Italy. Since its founding in 1983, IDLO has been promoting the rule of law as a means of furthering development. IDLO offers technical assistance and training to legislative, regulatory, and judicial bodies in developing and transition economy countries. In providing these services, IDLO frequently partners with other intergovernmental organizations, national governments, and non-governmental organizations, including IDLO's network of 38 national alumni associations composed of its former program participants. To date, IDLO has trained or provided technical assistance to more than 14,000 individuals from 162 countries. IDLO has substantial experience in providing training and technical assistance in the fields of democratic governance and corporate law. This experience offers a rich base of information on national policies and challenges facing development initiatives. IDLO can draw from an extensive network of practitioners, regulators and governmental officials in developing countries to assist in carrying out work in this area. IDLO staff have generated substantial scholarship and contributed to the development of international standards in the field of governance and anti-corruption IDLO staff have generated substantial scholarship and contributed to the development of international standards in the field of governance and anti-corruption. Representative examples of IDLO's work in this area include: ANNUAL TRAINING PROGRAMS ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND ANTI-CORRUPTION Through annual seminars on business law, IDLO provides training on corporate governance, compliance and anti-corruption measures for lawyers and regulators from developing and transition countries.

COALITION 2000 FOR DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING AN ANTI-CORRUPTION ACTION PLAN FOR BULGARIA (2000)

Under this USAID-funded project, IDLO coordinated and oversaw a creative anti-corruption effort by Bulgaria's non-governmental sector. The project joined government and the private sector in an effort to deal with one of this country's intractable problems and influenced the government's legislative efforts.

CAPACITY BUILDING FOR THE LITHUANIAN GOVERNMENT'S ANTI-CORRUPTION COMMISSION (2001)

IDLO provided assistance involving, technical assistance, training and awareness raising to the Lithuanian Government in creating a National Anti-Corruption Policy, Strategy and Implementation Program.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REFORM IN KOREA (2000)

In collaboration with Coudert Brothers, Shin & Kim and Stanford University, IDLO provided training and technical assistance on modern corporate governance practices for government officials and corporate decision-makers in Korea through a World Bank funded project.

ANTICORRUPTION STRATEGIES FOR MADAGASCAR (1999)

With funding from USAID, IDLO designed and conducted a two-day roundtable with governmental officials and civil society representatives on Anti-Corruption Strategies for Madagascar.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO BULGARIA ANTI-CORRUPTION COMMISSION (2003)

IDLO oversaw the development of an action plan for fighting corruption as part of a six-day training program and study tour, funded by USAID, for the Bulgarian anti-corruption commission.

DRAFTING NATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION ACTION PLANS IN THE ASIA-PACIFIC REGION (2000)

With USAID support, IDLO conducted one-week workshops in Cambodia, Papua New Guinea and the Philippines involving the development or refining of national action plans to combat corruption. A regional workshop was held in Canberra with representatives from each country, as well as Indonesia, to review progress on implementing national action plans in the four jurisdictions.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE SUPPORT (AOJS) IN EGYPT

With funding from AMIDEAST, in collaboration with the Egyptian Ministry of Justice, and in cooperation with the National Centre for Judicial Studies in Cairo, IDLO designed and conducted 4 one-week training workshops in Arabic on Enhancing the Judicial System for four groups of 30 Egyptian judges in Cairo, Egypt.

² In perspective of the G8 Summit 2005, IDLO is planning to organize an Expert Group Meeting, in close collaboration with UNDP under the framework of the existing Memorandum of Understanding, at the beginning of the next year. During this 3-day meeting, specialists will examine, summarize and improve these several initiatives and efforts to be achieved, and review progress to be made. IDLO aims to join governments, institutions and private sector initiatives, which are providing political support and technical assistance to a number of developing countries to assist their efforts in bringing greater transparency and accountability to the management of public resources.
