

Strategy E Morocco

Pr. Mustapha AMGHAR

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

This development strategy of information on Telecommunications and Technology relies on:

- A sectorial reform.
- Strategic orientations.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Strategic Objectives

- Generalising NTIC
- Accelerated spread of infrastructures
- Speeding up of the liberalisation of the competition
- Redefining the role by the State
- Setting up strategy means

5 priority scopes

1. Education, Training, Research and Culture
2. Administration et Collectivités locales
3. Enterprise and Economy
4. Electronic Commerce
5. Generalisation of NTIC social life

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Education, Training, Research and Culture

- Training of present generations
- Prepare future generations
- Mobilise human resources

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Administration = e-governance

- Develop an on-line administration program
- Modernise and Rationalise the management of State business
- Offer new services of nearness to citizens

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Enterprises & Economy

- Give impulse to broadcasting and integration of NTIC to all enterprises and economic field and more particularly PMEs.
- Promote and encourage innovative enterprises linked to the New Economy.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Electronic commerce

- Initiate a promotion scope for electronic commerce
- Give impulse to its development

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Generalisation of NTIC in social life

- Broadcasting of NTIC utilisation and Internet in particular to the entire society
- Ensure efficient spread conditions of the Universal Service

The main pilot projects

e-government :

- Valorisation and dynamisation of local activities.
- National federated portal and a portal for each town.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

The main pilot projects

e-government :

- Interadministration network.
- Teleprocessing.
- Putting public data on-line.

Objectives :

- Federate information and communication infrastructure.
- Integrate services of common interest.
- Modernise working methods and administration efficiency.
- Promote the entrance of Morocco in the information society.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

The main pilot projects

MARWAN NETWORK:

- High speed national computer network
- 16 towns (16 nodes).
- Universities, schools, training centres, research centres,

Eumedis project

Three objectives:

- Focal mediterranean point network.
- Interconnection between European and mediterranean research centres.
- Regional pilot projects.

Five application sectors:

- Euro-mediterranean health networks.
- Electronic commerce.
- Multimedia access to tourism and cultural heritage.
- Applied research in the industry, commerce and innovation.
- Education.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

Thank you.

Regional workshop on building e-Governance capacity in Africa

